BOOSTER C 600™

IMMUNE SUPPORT SUPPLEMENT

Seasonal Immune Support You Can Trust

600mg vitamin C • 10mg zinc • 30mg black elderberry • 100mg echinacea

USANA's Booster C 600™ is a special blend of ingredients shown to support healthy immune defenses. With a mouthwatering lemon-berry flavor, Booster C 600 is a supplement you will love to take. And because it's packaged in convenient, travel-sized packs, it's simply the perfect solution for those times when you want to boost your immunity on-the-go.*

Take Booster C 600 straight or mix with 4 oz. of water

"Between my rigorous training and a hectic travel schedule, it can be really easy for my body to start to feel run down. That's why I always keep a couple packs of Booster C 600 in my bag. Whenever I feel like I need a little extra immune support, I know it will give me the nutrients I need to keep going strong. And because it's from USANA, I know Booster C 600 is a product I can trust."

What sets Booster C 600 apart from the rest?

All immune support products contain vitamin C, but only USANA's Booster C 600 contains Poly C. No other immune support supplement can claim this unique ingredient, which has been shown to provide a higher level of vitamin C to the body over a longer period of time!*
