SALT LAKE CITY)--March 6, 2008--Distributors recently chose USANA Health Sciences (NASDAQ: USNA) as the best network marketing company for 2007 in an annual report released by MLM Insider. This marks the 10th year that USANA has ranked first in this category.

Each year, thousands of distributors make their pick for the best company in network marketing on the MLM Insider Website. USANA's continued place at the top of this noteworthy list demonstrates the loyalty and enthusiasm of its Associates and customers.

"USANA is honored to receive this recognition for the 10th straight year," said USANA Executive Vice President of Customer Relations Mark Wilson. "We are proud of our Associates and all they do, and we are grateful for their continued commitment to our company."

USANA Associate Pete Zdanis from Chester Springs, PA is one of many distributors who took the time to vote for USANA this year, "USANA's unprecedented achievement should come as no surprise, given that USANA's products are unequalled in the marketplace, the USANA Cellular Compensation Plan is among the fairest and most lucrative in the business, and USANA's management team has a proven track record of providing an outstanding business experience for tens of thousands of USANA Associates in 13 countries around the world," he explained.

USANA was also listed as one of the 10 best companies in network marketing on the MLM Insider's "Editor's Selection" list. This is the fourteenth consecutive year that USANA was included on the editor's list.
