

Jennifer Heil, Olympic Champion Mogul Skier

Jennifer Heil is one of the world's most decorated mogul skiers. She burst onto the scene in 2000 at age 16, setting the foundation for a successful career. Now in her seventh year as a World Cup team member, Jennifer has captured four straight World Cup women's mogul titles. She also won gold in the 2006 Olympic Winter Games in Torino, Italy, becoming the first Canadian woman to bring home a gold medal in the sport. Jennifer, who is preparing for the 2010 Winter Games in Vancouver, is fueled by an intense desire to perform at a high level while helping others achieve their own dreams. USANA's nutritional supplements have helped her handle a strenuous training and travel regimen, giving the world champion an edge on the slopes.

“Being Olympic champion, World champion and four-time World Cup overall winner in freestyle mogul skiing is no fluke. It's the result of years of meticulous training and preparation. USANA products are an integral part of my daily routine. They help ensure that I maintain good health along with proper energy levels to train, travel, and compete around the world.”
